60 pce IS 2003 Canadian Broadcasting Corp.
This video and teachers guide covers: 1)The Canadian Economy:Under Attack-Mad cow disease, SARS, massive blackouts and fires. It's costing us billions and as Havard Gould reports the Canadian economy has begun to show signs of weakening. 2)Blackout: The Day the Power Went Out: It took only seconds for 50 million North American to lose electricity. This segment looks at how people coped. 3)Canada Debates Same-Sex Marriage: For some, this was an inevitable step in the evolution of human rights, for others it failed to acknowledge the institution of marriage roles in society. 4)The Asahi Baseball Team Remembered: In the 1930’s the Asahi baseball team was the pride of Vancouver's Little Tokyo. But by 1942 Canada was at war with Japan and anyone of Japanese descent was sent to internment camps. Duncan McCue profiles how one team member faces up to hardships and racism and survived to see his team inducted into the Canada's Baseball Hall of Fame this summer.

The Crucible / Comfort and Fear
73070 DVD
240 min JIS 2001 Canadian Broadcasting Corp.
The Crucible - 1940 To 1946. Canada comes of age in the anguish of World War II, with soldiers on the beaches at Dieppe and women in the industrial work force back home. The country's military role and the domestic social and political consequences of the war are traced through poignant stories of Canadians on both sides of the Atlantic. The horrific global conflict steals the innocence of a generation... but brings hope for a new future. For grades 5-12. Comfort and Fear - 1946 To 1964. The end of World War II signals the end of fifteen years of social, political and economic upheaval. The post-war baby boom and government economic and social policies give rise to unprecedented prosperity and growth for Canadian communities. Television becomes a powerful new tool with social and political consequences. But in the midst of plenty, growing fears of the Cold War and nuclear conflict create an unsettled atmosphere. Political leaders - including Diefenbaker, Smallwood, Duplessis create excitement and controversy. Saskatchewan's premier Tommy Douglas begins the fight for Medicare while Canada finds itself increasingly absorbed into the American military, economic and cultural orbit. For grades 5-12.

Ordeal By Fire / Hard Times
240 min JIS 2001 Canadian Broadcasting Corp.
Ordeal By Fire - 1915 to 1929 Canada's heavy military role in World War I (60,000 dead in a population of 8 million) transforms its society, its society, politics and its place in the world. The horror, bravery and sacrifice of trench warfare are evoked in Canada's great battles: Ypres, the Somme, Vimy Ridge, Courcelette and Passchendaele. The domestic consequences of Canada's war effort are also wrenching - the conscription crisis of 1917 marks a low point in English-French relations. After the war ends, labour revolts in Winnipeg and across the country raise fears of a Bolshevik insurrection. The return to stability in the mid-1920s lasts only briefly as the crash of 1929 plunges the country into economic chaos. For grades 5-12. Hard Times - 1929 to 1940 Canada's economy collapses during the 1930s, creating a prolonged political and social crisis. In the context of the Dust Bowl, the relief camps and the Regina Riot, political leaders such as William Aberhart, Maurice Duplessis, and Mitchell Hepburn capture national attention. Meanwhile, an increasingly menacing international climate sees the rise of fascism and mounting likelihood of another world war. When war does arrive, Canada finds itself fighting virtually alone at Britain's side. For grades 5-12.
