The 1930s: The Strongmen, 1939-1940: Selling War
75552 DVD
172 min IS 2010 Canadian Broadcasting Corp.
The Strongmen: This is the story of Adolf Hitler, Benito Mussolini, Joseph Stalin and Emperor Hirohito. Each employed propaganda in their own way to gain control over their citizens. Selling War: When Adolf Hitler begins his campaign of conquest in 1939, most Germans actually don't want war. But Hitler and Joseph Goebbels use every tool of propaganda to change their minds.
No Other Versions Available

1941: Meet the Enemy, 1942-1943: Truth and Total War
75552 DVD
172 min IS 2010 Canadian Broadcasting Corp.
Meet the Enemy: As Germany invades Russia and Japan attacks Pearl Harbour, leaders on all sides launch skillful campaigns to convince their populations that the war is winnable, despite their formidable enemies. Truth and Total War: Germany and Japan have mastery of the seas and control of the major theatres of war. But by 1943, the tide is changing and both countries are forced to change their messaging.
No Other Versions Available

1944-1945: Hiding the Horrors, 1945: Changing the Story
75553 DVD
172 min IS 2010 Canadian Broadcasting Corp.
Hiding the Horrors: examines the final years of World War II, when leaders on all sides kept their propaganda machines churning to conceal the extent of civilian losses. Changing the Story: Propaganda machines that had geared up populations for war now have to prepare them for peace. With the end of WWll and the start of the Cold War, enemies would become partners, and allies now foes.
No Other Versions Available

The Brown Book
323.1914 CHO 07977 Book 2002 41 p.
The brown book is about telling and sharing stories and thereby building bridges between people and between social struggles. It is about young people from Toronto and Lahore working for change and struggling with many issues including identity, religion and politics. This project is an attempt to challenge racism, ageism, and Northern-centric notions that exist in Canadian society.
No Other Versions Available

Cracks in the Wall / War of Words
76249 DVD
180 min IS 2011 Canadian Broadcasting Corp.
Cracks in the Wall - Berlin becomes the Cold War under a microscope East and West, in close quarters, battle about ideology, right down to who has the best music. In the hope of eclipsing the popularity of Western rock stars, East German authorities manufacture their own pop star. Frank Schobel can’t compete with the appeal of the Beatles or the Rolling Stones, but with the Communist Propaganda machine handling his career, he’s guaranteed success. The Soviet Union hands the West a propaganda triumph when their tanks invade Czechoslovakia in 1968. But the US government is waging its own war against protest as the Vietnam War spirals out of control. War of Words - In the 1980’s, three men - three new voices - speak out and change the rules of the Cold War. American president Ronald Reagan, a staunch anti-communist, heats up the Cold War. His words will resonate around the world. A Polish pope, John Paul II, will have a profound influence on Union Leader Lech Walesa. As a result Walesa will move from issues surrounding the trade union movement to wider issues concerning human liberty and human rights. The two will galvanize Poland and rattle the Iron Curtain.
No Other Versions Available

Henry Ford - Tin Lizzy Tycoon
74410 DVD
50 min IS 1994 McCarney & Associates
A&E Biography, narrated by Jack Perkins, makes the case that no one had a bigger impact on the 20th century than Ford based on the way he used massed production to popularize the automobile. As told in this biography Ford’s life falls neatly into two halves, defined by both the Great Depression and his taking ownership of his company. In the first half of Ford never predicted his own vision, and while he cannot be called a true inventor, his practical application of the work of others in the world of business is certainly on a grand scale. His concern for both the workers at his factories and the people who will buy his cars speaks to a different sort of greatness as well.
No Other Versions Available

In the Shadows of Fear / Turning Up the Heat
76248 DVD
180 min IS 2011 Canadian Broadcasting Corp.
In the Shadow of Fear - Short-lived alliances end as war time allies become enemies once again. Soviet leader Joseph Stalin tries to build an image as the sole conqueror of the Third Reich and Father of his people. The Soviet Union consolidates its grip on the countries of Eastern Europe. Within Germany’s borders, a game of psychological chicken between East and West leads to the dramatic Berlin Blockade and Airlift. Turning up the Heat - In the Soviet Union, the death of Stalin brings hope for more peaceful times. His successor Nikita Khrushchev brings a more jovial face to the Soviet dictatorship, and he tries to revamp the country’s image by hosting a huge party for the world’s youth. But he shows his true colours with the hard-handed repression of reform in Hungary. The battle for black civil rights in America gives the Soviets a powerful propaganda weapon, especially in Africa where the superpowers fight for influence in the era of decolorization and independence.
No Other Versions Available

Joseph Stalin: Red Terror
947.084/2/092 74411 DVD
50 min IS 1996 McCarney & Associates
During his decades-long reign as absolute ruler of the Soviet Union, Stalin made himself the very face of Communism, rewriting history to make of the Revolution itself, no idealistic thinker, Stalin was the thug who could be counted upon to always get things done - at any cost. Even today, one associates Stalin much more quickly than Lenin with the defunct USSR, and some Russians actually look back upon Stalin’s reign with an element of nostalgia, denying Stalin’s crimes the weight of elements of the history of his own country. History clearly shows us that Stalin was the most evil man/killer of the twentieth century and quite possibly the most paranoid, brutal leader the world has ever known. It seems impossible to believe that he could be looked upon as “Uncle Joe” during the days of the Russian-American-British alliance against the Germans in World War II, for Stalin cared only for power and nothing else.
No Other Versions Available

Mahatma Gandhi - Pilgrims of Peace
954.035/5/092 74416 DVD
50 min k IS 1997 McCarney & Associates
Mahatma Gandhi’s life was a study in contrast and paradox. He saw himself as doing God’s work, yet recognized only personal conscience as the highest authority. He was a charismatic leader of millions who confounded intellectuals. He took a vow of abstinence, but in old age welcomed young women into his bed! Biography profiles the small man who took a great nation on his shoulders and changed the world. Trace his rise to power and fearless campaign of truth, non-violence and non-cooperation with injustice that defeated the British Empire.
No Other Versions Available
Special Feature
76250 DVD
103 min IS 2011 Canadian Broadcasting Corp.
Special Features includes: Bomb Shelters; Opening Up
Diefenbunker; Kids On The Moon - Apollo 11 Landing; Why The Kremlin Hates Bananas; Fall Our Shelter (The McCallum Family) & Emergency Measures Organization;
and Duck and Cover: US Civil Defense Film.
No Other Versions Available

Special Features
75554 DVD
132 min IS 2010 Canadian Broadcasting Corp.
182 minutes of special features for Love Hate & Propaganda include: Canadian Army Newsreel - Sicily 1943;
Leni Riefenstahl Interview - 1965; War for Mens Minds
- 1943 Canadian Propaganda film; The Proudest Girl in the World - Canadian Propaganda film; The Last Butterfly:
Terezin A Nazi Hoax; and more.
No Other Versions Available

Thomas Edison
74406 DVD
50 min IS 1995 McCarney & Associates
Life in the modern world would be unthinkable without his inventions. More than any other individual, he paved the way for the future. Thomas Alva Edison has rightly earned a place among the most important men in history. His inventions the light bulb, phonograph and movie camera, among many others literally transformed the world. But countless myths have sprung up around Edison, and his private life was a marked contrast to his success as an inventor.
No Other Versions Available

The West and the World
07468 Book
458 p. T 2003
This Teacher Resource Package supports the textbook
The West and the World and is provided for evaluation purposes - please visit the Professional Library to review
the materials.
No Other Versions Available