How to Protect Yourself When Buying a Used Vehicle Privately

In March of 2009, 22-year old Trooper Marc Diab of The Royal Canadian Dragoons was killed in Afghanistan when his vehicle struck an IED (Improvised Explosive Device). In the wake of his death, countless lives were changed forever. If I Should Fall tells the story of Marc's life through the accounts of those who loved him: his family, his comrades of D Squadron, and his beloved girlfriend. Supported by an ensemble of renowned Canadian military experts, including retired Major General Lewis MacKenzie, Esprit De Corps Magazines Scott Taylor, and author Captain Ray Wiss M.D., the film explores the conflict in Afghanistan and the timeless tragedy of what it means to lose a loved one to war.

No Other Versions Available

Introduction to the House of Commons

Filmed on location in Ottawa, this video offers an overview of the grandeur, importance and relevance of Canada's Parliament, with a specific focus on the House of Commons. Students will gain insight into the role of Members of Parliament with a specific focus on the House of Commons. The video combines an upbeat tour of the House of Commons with an interactive quiz featuring Canadian celebrities.

No Other Versions Available

Jambo Kenya

Jambo Kenya is a journey to the heart of the Masai Mara in Kenya with 11 high school youth who travel and live there as part of a Leader's Today Summer Leadership Kenya program. When they arrive they realize they will need to build a schoolhouse from the ground up and teach English to the local children - all without running water, proper sleep, or any of the amenities that they take for granted at home. They are given only three weeks. Will they succeed?

No Other Versions Available

Move Your World

Marie, Kourosh and Chaminda are regular Canadian teens who win a contest that sends them halfway across the globe to Tanzania, Africa! They team up with new Tanzanian friends, Kevin, Tiberia, Sadiq and Elizabeth to savour the amazing sounds and smells of Dar es Salaam. An incredible safari with mating lions? They're sure come a long way from Canada! But the real reason this trip is a serious one: They've come to see for themselves the devastation caused by HIV/AIDS, especially on childrens lives. Outside of Dar es Salaam, they meet Angelina and Veronika two little girls who are HIV-positive. They're poor. They're ignored by the government, their communities, even their own families. They are the forgotten faces of HIV/AIDS. Shaken by what they've seen, Marie, Kourosh and Chaminda return to Canada determined to move the world to action.

No Other Versions Available

Respecting Beliefs
261.2 74310 DVD
24 min IS 2004 Canadian Learning Company
This program promotes religious tolerance through exploration of several of the world’s prominent belief systems. Beginning in each case with the historic origins, the program introduces students to the combination of philosophy, traditions, ethical codes, and rituals that characterize Judaism, Christianity, Islam, and Buddhism. Atheism as a system of thought based on the non-existence of a god or gods is also examined. Actual students candidly share their thoughts on what their individual beliefs mean to them. Viewers are taken on a virtual fieldtrip into various houses of worship, briefly viewing ceremonies and surroundings they may never have previously experienced. Viewers are encouraged to compare and contrast these diverse belief systems, as the program provides practical guidelines for nurturing more positive attitudes towards diversity.

No Other Versions Available

Special Features
75554 DVD
132 min IS 2010 Canadian Broadcasting Corp.
182 minutes of special features for Love Hate & Propaganda include: Canadian Army Newsreel - Sicily 1943; Leni Riefenstahl Interview - 1965; War for Men's Minds - 1943 Canadian Propaganda film; The Proudest Girl in the World - Canadian Propaganda film; The Last Butterfly: Terezin A Nazi Hoax; and more.

No Other Versions Available

Understanding Canadian Government
320.971 73764 DVD
35 min IS 2005 Kinetic Video Inc.
This dvd describes the basic components of our federal and provincial governments in Canada. Topics include: Constitution, Queen, Governor General, House of Commons, Senate, Public Service, Judicial System, Charter of Rights and Freedoms, Provincial Governments, Territorial Governments, Parliament, Cabinet, Prime Minister - Electoral Process, Party System - Division of Powers and more.

No Other Versions Available